Indiana Society Plans an Elaborate Reception.

FAIRBANKS HONOR GUEST

President Mathews Names Committee to Complete Arrangements for State Function.

The Indiana Society of the District of Columbia has decided to give a reception in honor of Vice President Fairbanks, the members of the Indiana delegation in Congress, and the following prominent Indiana men recently called to the public service in Washington: Jesse Wilson, Assistant Secretary of the Interior; B. F. Harper, Auditor for the War Department; Charles Denby, chief clerk of the State Department, and Charles McGonagle, deputy-auditor for the Postoffice De-

This was decided last night at a large and enthusiastic meeting of the mem-bers, held at Pythian Temple.

Jerry A. Mathews, president of the society, appointed the following committee to make the arrangements: William M. Bass, chairman; Thomas R. Shipp, Charles M. Robinson, Charles

Among the prominent Indiana gen-tlemen who have registered as members of the society, and who made short speeches commending its work, were Representative George Cromer, of Muncle; Assistant Secretary of the Interior Jesse Wilson; Postoffice De-partment Auditor Charles A. There were several women at the meeting, and they took as much interest in its proceedings as the men. A motion to enroll them as members, without initiation fees or membership dues, was greeted with applause.

JOHNNY REB'S FATHER WANTS BIGGER PENSION

Adam Reb Asks Government to Contribute to the Support of His Youngsters.

Johnny Reb's father, Adam Reb. of Pennsylvania, today filed an application in the Pension office asking for an increase of pension.

Mr. Reb. senior, was a member of the 57th Pennsylvania Infantry and served with gallantry during the civil war. One of his reasons for asking an increase is that he is the father of six children. Among them he names Johnny Reb as one of his sons. Although his name suggests the idea, Johnny Reb was not on the firing line opposite his father during the civil war.

Number of Attendants Declared to Exceed the Number of Patients, and Secretary Opposes the Appropriation.

The Secretary of the Treasury, in his recent report, makes recommendations seriously reflecting upon the management of the Public Health and Marine partment has been making certain in vestigations of the conduct of the Hospital Service. He makes a distinct recommendation that fourteen out of NUST REMAIN SEPARATE recommendation that fourteen out the twenty-one marine hospitals owned and operated by the Government be and operated by the providclosed, and that the patients be provided for by contract with outside hos-Those excepted are the tuberculosis hospital at Fort Stanton, and the hospitals at New York, Boston, Baltimore, New Orleans, Chicago, and San Francisco. The Secretary states that the cost of maintenance of all the hospitals during the past three years has averaged $2.68 a day for each patient. In some cases the cost has been as high as 34 a day, while in the eighty-two contract hospitals, the average price for furnishing quarters, subsistence, nursing, maintenance, etc., except medical attendance, has been less #### than $1 per day per patient. Would Repeal Appropriation.

The Secretary also recomends the repeal of the appropriations of $125,000 each for the erection of hospitals at Buffalo and Pittsburg. He states that in addition to the appropriation for the buildings it will cost at least $50,000 each for their furniture and equipment. He evidently does not think it a very good business policy to expend $200,000 to build hospitals where patients can be kept at an expense of three times what it would cost to keep them outside where no appropriation for building is required.

Report Creates Surprise.

ated very much surprise and comment,

Tens of thousands have known no other soap since birth. For preserving, purifying, and beautifying the skin, for cleansing the scalp of crusts, scales, and dandruff, and the stopping of falling hair, for softening, whitening, and soothing red, rough, and sore hands, for baby rashes and chafings, and for many sanative, antiseptic purposes which readily suggest themseives to mothers, as well as for the toilet, bath, RESIGNS HIS POSITION and nursery, Cuticura Soap, assisted by Cuticura Ointment, the stood that for some months the de-partment has been making certain in-vestigations of the conduct of the Marine Hospital Service, but it has been impossible to gain any informa-tion as to what facts have been ascer-tained except such as are revealed in the report of the Secretary. An ex-amination, however, of the reports of this service for the past few years shows a most startling condition of things.

In most of the smaller hospitals there has been, exclusive of the medical officers, surgeons and pharmacists, a number of attendants equal to and in some cases in excess of, the number of patients. All throughout the list the widest discrepancy is shown. For instance, at New York, with an average instance, at New York, with an average number of 105 patients, there are but four officers and twenty-six attendants, while at Chicago, with only about one-third the number of patients, there are three officers and tweny-four attendants; at New Orleans, with just one-third the number of patients, there are three officers and twenty-four attendants; at Memphis, Louisville, Cairo, Cincinnati, Evansville, and Vineyard Haven, there are, all told, seventy-five attendants to eighty-two patients.

seventy-five attendants to eighty-two patients.
When it is considered that seamen, as a class, are rugged and rough, and that the diseases to which they are mostly subject are not of a character requiring unusual attention, it would seem that such a number of attendants and nurses is extremely excessive.

Would Reduce Cost.

These reports show that it costs from two to three times as much to care for patients in Marine Hospitals as it does in outside hospitals by private con-tract. More than half of them in the smaller ports are taken care of in private hospitals, and no complaints are made as to their treatment.

CONDITION IS SERIOUS.

As the result of an operation performed several days ago, Col. Charles A. De Armand, a well-known member of the G. A. R., in this city, is now in a serious condition at the Providence Hospital. It was announced this afternoon that there was no change in his condition.
